MESSAGE

I am happy to learn that Netaji Subhas University of Technology (NSUT) is publishing its third Annual Report for the Academic year 2020-2021.

NSUT has had a glorious past and it is proactively adapting itself to the paradigm shift in higher education. It has risen up to the occasion and is skilling students through not only academic programmes, but also by way of a robust concurrent interface with the industry. Such interface while at one level ensures training of employable graduates, on the other hand it also ascertains that the corporate sector and academia, benefit by way of excellent human resource.

I extend my good wishes to all on this occasion and wish all stakeholders the very best in their future endeavours.
