MESSAGE

I am happy to know that Netaji Subhas University of Technology (NSUT) is releasing its 7th Annual Report for the Academic Year 2024-2025. This milestone reflects not only the University's consistent growth but also its ongoing commitment to advancing knowledge and fostering excellence across all dimensions of academic life.

The remarkable dedication of the faculty, together with the drive and creativity of the students, continues to propel NSUT to new heights. Through pioneering research, innovative learning practices, and meaningful engagement with communities, the University has established itself as a leader in both education and societal contribution.

Over the past year, NSUT's focus on emerging technologies, interdisciplinary collaboration, and global partnerships has further strengthened its reputation as a centre of innovation. The holistic approach to student development ensures that graduates are equipped with the skills, values, and vision necessary to address contemporary challenges and contribute responsibly to society.

As NSUT moves forward, it is essential to maintain this momentum, nurturing an inclusive, forward-looking, and sustainable academic environment. I congratulate the entire University community for their achievements and dedication, and extend my best wishes for continued success, growth, and distinction in the years ahead

(Taranjit Singh Sandhu)
