I am happy to know that North Delhi Municipal Corporation Medical College is celebrating its second Convocation on 8th Aug, 2022. On this occasion, the college will release its annual report highlighting its achievements in past years and graduating students will be awarded degrees. Graduation day is a unique celebration. It marks the arrival of maturity and responsibility, for students stepping into the professional world. This accomplishment of students is a matter of great pride for the Institute.

I praise the efforts of entire fraternity of North Delhi Municipal Corporation Medical College, Delhi in taking institute towards academic and professional excellence. With an emphasis on innovation, excellence, ethics, inclusivity, and accountability, I am happy to see that Institute is well into its ninth year of operations. The Institute has fostered up its position right from its establishment predominantly amid novel medical colleges in and around Delhi.

I wish great success to all the members of the medical college in their endeavor to achieve excellence in higher education on the occasion of Second Convocation. I would be keenly interested to see this medical college rise to new heights in the upcoming years.
