MESSAGE

I extend my heartiest congratulations to each one of the graduating students of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University Delhi, on the momentous occasion of its 12th Annual Convocation. Hard work, dedication, and unwavering commitment to academic pursuits on part of the students have led them to this significant milestone in their life.

The University has not only provided them with a platform for acquiring knowledge but has also fostered an environment that encourages analytical thinking, creativity, and a deep understanding of social issues. I am confident that the education that the students have received here has equipped them with the tools to explore the vast opportunities and navigate the challenges of the world with confidence and resilience.

In the ever-evolving landscape of higher education, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University of Delhi has established itself in the fields of social sciences and humanities. The innovative curriculum and commitment to experiential learning have positioned this institution at the forefront of innovation in social sciences. I congratulate the University faculty for their efforts in aligning with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which emphasises holistic and outcome-based education.

As you step out into the world, remember that you carry not only your degrees but also the values and ideas of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar whose philosophy and thoughts have guided the spirit of teaching-learning in the University. I encourage you to continue seeking knowledge, embracing diversity, and championing the principles of equality and social justice, which are at the core of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's legacy. You are the torchbearers of change, and I am confident that you have the ability to contribute to the betterment of our society and the world at large.

I once again congratulate you on your graduation and wish you every success in all your future endeavors. The city of Delhi and the world awaits your unique contributions.
