MESSAGE

I am happy to know that Delhi Teachers University is bringing out its admission brochure for the Academic Year 2025-26.

The future of any nation is shaped not just by its economy or technology, but by the values, knowledge, and character it instills in its people. Teachers are the silent nation-builders, shaping minds and inspiring generations.

This University is more than just an institution; it is a mission-to-define the standards of teacher preparation and educational leadership. We are committed to nurturing professionals who are not only skilled in pedagogy but are also deeply rooted in the principles of justice, equity, and humanity.

Delhi Teachers University stands ready to lead this journey, empowering future educators to inspire change in every classroom, every community, and every corner of the nation.

I extend my best wishes to the University and its students.
