MESSAGE

I am happy to know that the Directorate General of Home Guards is celebrating its 63rd Raising Day on 06th December, 2025.

The Home Guards have been a vital component of Delhi's security framework, working tirelessly in complementing the Police Force in maintaining law and order, preventing crime, and providing assistance during emergencies and natural disasters. Their dedication, discipline, and commitment to duty are truly commendable.

As we celebrate this significant occasion, I appreciate the invaluable contributions of Home Guards in supporting the Delhi Police and other agencies in ensuring public safety and security. Their role in promoting communal harmony, assisting in disaster management, and participating in community outreach programs is particularly noteworthy.

I extend my best wishes to all Home Guards and their families.
