D.O. No. LN/2026/209
Dated: 30.07.2026

I am happy to know that the Police Complaints Authority is bringing out its Annual Report for 2025-2026.

The PCA was established as a crucial institutional step towards police reforms, to serve as an independent forum to address citizen complaints against Delhi Police personnel. Over the years, it has become instrumental in promoting accountability and public confidence in law enforcement.

It is highly commendable that the Authority resolved 2,748 public complaints during 2025-26. This achievement highlights its sustained commitment to timely grievance redressal and effective public service.

I am confident that the PCA will continue to operate with the highest standards of fairness and integrity, reinforcing public trust in our justice system.

My best wishes for their future endeavours.
